1. The Partito Comunista Italiano (PCI) Directorate has reportedly issued orders to all Party branches to the effect that the most trustworthy young Communists should apply for enlistment in the group of 7,000 specialists desired by the Ministry of Defense, as recently advertised throughout Italy.
2. The PCI Directorate has also requested all Federations to submit a list of all Communist members who have served in specialized units of the Italian armed forces, especially radio-telegraphists.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
